MISS BURR'S SWIMMING PARTY.

Miss Bertie Burr was the first to take advantage of the facilities for social enjoyment offered by the new sanitarium, and the new departure inaugurated by her was most successful. Invitations to a social swimming party at the sanitarium Wednesday morning, from 10 to 12 o'clock were sent to lady and gentlemen friends, and at the time indicated the great plunge was the scene of an animated and merry gathering. Miss Burr is a most accomplished swimmer; the public is aware of her life saving experience of two years ago and of the graceful acknowledgment of her heroism by the United States government in the form of a beautiful gold medal. At the party Wednesday morning her grace in the water excited general admiration. There were many other ladies and gentlemen present who were good swimmers present, and as the graded depth of the big plunge made it possible for the most timid to find enjoyment, the guests derived much pleasure from Miss Burr's hospitality. The handsome parlors adjoining the plunge were full of people, those who did not bathe availing themselves of the luxury of the reception rooms, which for their beauty are unequalled in this city. Light refreshments were served during the morning. The invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Ashby, A. G. Beeson, L. C. Burr, A. S. Burr, A. D. Burr, J. A. Buckstaff, E. E. ALUMNI DINNER.

After the regular commencement exercises, Wednesday, the graduates and faculty of the State University repaired to Grant Memorial hall where the Y. W. C. A. ladies had the drill room converted into a banquet hall. The tables were tastefully decorated and in the center of the room was a pyramid of potted plants. A number of pretty girls were in readiness to serve the annual alumni dinner. During the courses the university orchestra under the direction of Mr. Menzendorf rendered appropriate selections. Mr. Will O. Jones was toastmaster and responses were given as follows: The University, Chancellor Canfield; the early classes, A. M. Field; class of '78, H. H. Wilson; class of '79, Prof. C. N. Little; class of '80, Prof. H. W. Caldwell; class of '81, Prof. Lawrence Foster; class of '82, Mrs. A. M. Field; class of '85, Dr. A. G. Warner; class of '87, Paul F. Clark; class of '88, O. B. Polk; class of '89, T. S. Allen; class of '90, H. C. Porter; class of '91, Miss Schwab; class of '92, Miss Pound; class of '93, Emory Hardy. Among the young ladies waiting on the tables were: Misses Anna Barr, Clara Walsh, Gertrude Laws, Deana Loomis, Gertrude Hill, Margaret Baird, Helen Welch, Anna Weeks, Agnes Sewell, Georgia Camp, Bessie McNill, Georgia Theil, Nellie Cochran, Stella Elliot, Mrs. Ethel Drain, Mrs. Joseph Bigger, and Mrs. N. C. Abbot.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Miss Martha Hutchinson, of the graduating class of the university, entertained a few friends at her home, 622 South Seventh street, Wednesday evening. Miss Hutchinson was assisted by the members of the Delta Gamma fraternity and took this occasion to bid farewell to many of her university associates who are about to leave Lincoln. Among those present were: Misses Sarah Shwab, Pearl Camp, George Camp, Alice Wing, Bessie Wing, Mattie Tremaine, Josephine Tremaine, Grace Bridge, Nellie Cochran, Helen Harwood, Joy Webster, Anna Broady, Carrie Dennis, Alice Hutchison, Anna Wilder, Laura Haggard, Lydia Mullen, Nina Weller, Maude Hammond, and Miss Keating. Messrs. THE RENAISSANCE CLUB.

The Renaissance club was entertained by Judge and Mrs. A. W. Field, Friday evening. Magazine articles were reviewed by each member of the club, and Mrs. E. T. Hartley gave a discussion on the "Merchant of Venice." The roll call was responded to by quotations. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames A. J. Sawyer, E. T. Hartley, Ricketts, Frank Hall, H. H. Wilson and A. W. Field.

FUNKE HALL.

Mr. Oscar F. Funke, of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Hall, of Omaha, were married in Trinity Cathedral, Omaha, at 12 o'clock, noon, Thursday, June 8. The ceremony was performed by Dean Gardner and Rev. Mr. Gasmann, of California, uncle of the bride.

The wedding was very quiet and informal, only relatives and most intimate friends being present. The beautiful standing lamp adorned with a handsome red shade. Red ribbons were suspended from the chandelier to the corners of the table and were trimmed with carnations. The supper was composed almost entirely of that color such as deviled crabs in the shell, lobsters garnished with red radishes, strawberries, etc. The table presented a beautiful appearance and was the result of Mrs. Bruck's originality. Those at the table were: Mrs. N. S. Hershler, Mrs. Newmark, Hershler, M. Acker, J. Spier, M. Weil, S. Kseny, L. Woodard, S. D. Mayer, H. Schlensinger, Mitchell, Mrs. I. Brucks, and Miss Anna Mayer.

FUNKE HALL.

Mr. Oscar F. Funke, of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Hall, of Omaha, were married in Trinity Cathedral, Omaha, at 12 o'clock, noon, Thursday, June 8. The ceremony was performed by Dean Gardner and Rev. Mr. Gasmann, of California, uncle of the bride.

The wedding was very quiet and informal, only relatives and most intimate friends being present. The beautiful marriage service of the Episcopal church was most impressively rendered. The bride was so charming and the bridegroom so manly, the surroundings were of such a happy character, that the ceremony, performed under such favorable auspices, was a beautiful event to be long cherished in the memory of those present.

The day was fair and the cathedral, the scene of so many fashionable weddings, was never more attractive. The sun's rays distilled through the rich stained glass windows, suffused the sacred edifice with a subdued light that added to the impressiveness of the occasion. So simple and so charming was the wedding!

On the stroke of twelve the bride, on the arm of her brother, Mr. Netherton Hall, following her mother, Mrs. P. C. Hall and Mr. Kingwalt, her brother-in-law, proceeded down the main aisle, meeting before the altar Mr. Funke, who was accompanied by Mr. D. G. Wing, of this city. Immediately after the ceremony the relatives of the contracting parties and those who assisted were driven to the residence of the bride, 2025 St. Mary's Ave., where an informal reception was held until the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Funke, shortly before 4 o'clock, for Chicago.

Those present at the wedding from Lincoln were: Mrs. Funke, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke, Mr. and Mrs. Outcalt and children, Prof. and Mrs. C. N. Little, Miss Anne Funke, Mr. E. L. Hathaway, and Miss Shears. The ushers were Mr. Gannett, of Omaha, and Mr. Smith, of this city.

The bridal couple will arrive in Lincoln the latter part of this month and will reside on K street near Twelfth. The bride is well known in this city, having visited here the guest of Miss Shears. She is a very lovely and talented young lady. Mr. Funke is one of Lincoln's most popular young men and has attained a prominence in business affairs that reflects much credit upon his ability. Together they will be most warmly received upon their arrival in Lincoln by a large number of warm friends.

WHIST CLUB.

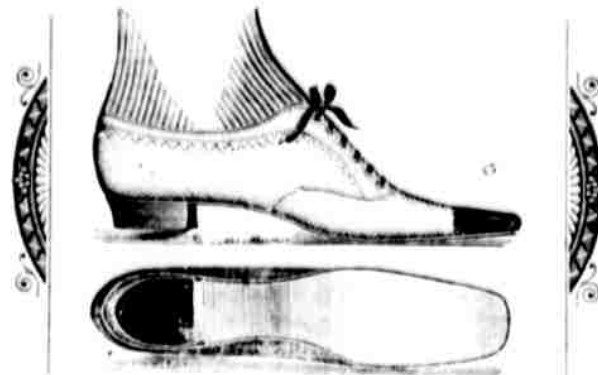

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Leonard entertained a small whist club, party Monday evening at their home on Twelfth street. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beeson, C. N. Little, Frank Ladd, Green, and A. B. Coffroth.
